

The dashboard shows whether team members are online or offline and provides tools for managing their schedules efficiently and summarises the types of tasks.

The task board demonstrates the types of tasks and helps students understand the process required to complete each one.